The NCAA Hall of Champions is filled with hands-on, interactive exhibits. Witness a tennis serve at nearly 100 miles per hour, lift a rowing skull just like the NCAA athletes, take a shot from the free-throw line, test your balance on the beam or climb into the downhill skiing simulator, just to name a few.

Experience all 23 sports of the NCAA

The NCAA Hall of Champions is a two-level 30,000-square foot facility that celebrates the academic and athletic experiences of current and former NCAA student-athletes. Located adjacent to the NCAA National Office, the Hall of Champions features interactive exhibits, relevant artifacts and memorabilia, as well as photos and video that center on the 23 NCAA sports and 88 championships.

- Each of the NCAA's 23 championship sports has its own display featuring graphics, artifacts, memorabilia, photos, video, and several interactive features.
- Banners hang from the 50-foot ceiling of the Great Hall celebrating the current winners of all 88 NCAA national championships.
- Hall of Honor chamber celebrates the academic and athletic achievements of current and former student-athletes.
